MEMBERS ABSENT: Tom Olsen, Charles MacLean, Mark St. Jean, Chris Chapman, Willem van de Stadt

GUESTS: None

ACCEPTANCE OF MINUTES: Minutes for July meeting unanimously approved

HARBORMASTER'S REPORT: Harbormaster not present but Mr. Santos did offer that the Harbormaster has been working to clean up the mooring field and offered 6 moorings to people on the waiting list and removed 2 derelict moorings. In the coming weeks they will be removing other moorings that are not in compliance.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Citation Resolution Backlog

20 tickets hearings were scheduled, 2 people showed up and said they would pay. A 3rd person showed up to request a personal apology despite the fact that his ticket was revoked after it was determined that it was issued in error. Clerk

Magistrate gave 28 days after hearing before a criminal complaint is issued. August 5th there is another hearing for additional outstanding tickets as well as on the 11th of August for a pending civil case to recoup monies spent to salvage a sunken vessel.

- 2023 Fee Schedule

Working Meeting was held on May 17th to discuss 2023 Fee Schedule. The proposed changes include an increase in Waterway Fee and Mooring fee as well as a change in the late fee for Waterway Stickers. Will be discussed at upcoming meetings and voted on in September to be presented to the Board of Selectmen.

- Mooring Field Reorganization

Addressed in the Harbormaster report.

- Boat Repowering and Hull Conditioning

Harbormaster not present to discuss quotes but may request a special meeting to discuss the quotes.

- Action on Inactive Harbor Commission Members

Waiting on Chairman to discuss.

APPROPRIATIONS: Mr. Santos requested funds for two new laptops for the Harbormaster and Mr. Santos to utilize. The Commission unanimously approved $2800 for the purchase of two new laptops.

ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA: Introduction of new member, Mike Tennis.
