Applications:

Change of Manager – Splash.

Mr. Steven Miller stated he took over Manager of Splash in 2013 and in 2014 he had some health issues so he took the year off. Mr. Miller stated that the owner Mr. Smith was not happy with his new manager and he didn't have a good understanding of the liquor laws. Mr. Smith asked him to come back to be the manager of Splash. Mr. Steven Miller has accepted Mr. Smith's offer. Mary Jo Griffin asked Mr. Miller if he had worked in another establishment while he was out. He stated he worked at Diane's Fine Deserts in Newburyport. Mr. Miller stated that prior to Splash he worked at Surf Side Five and Seaglass. Chris Walsh asked Mr. Miller if he was ever involved in a discipline or violation hearing before the Liquor Commission before. Mr. Miller stated he was involved in a violation hearing in February 2014. Chris Walsh stated that violation was due to a police report after an activity. Chris Walsh was confirming Mr. Miller was the same person as in that hearing. Mr. Gilbert stated that there was an issue of over serving last year in August that resulted in Splash serving a suspension from a prior incident. There were several issues last year, generally related to over serving. Mr. Gilbert wanted him to be aware of these issues. Mr. Gilbert asked if Mr. Allen would be working as security. Mr. Miller did not know the answer to that.

Upon a motion made by Sean McCarthy and seconded by Tyrone Rowe it was VOTED 5 YES, 1 NO to accept the change of manager, Steven Miller.
