Correspondence:

Mr. Gilbert has received several phone calls inquiring about Liquor license. At this time we only have seasonal license available. Mr. Gilbert suggested that they apply for a seasonal license and the board will work with the legislator to obtain an Annual license out of the quota from the state. No applications have been received.

Mr. Gilbert has talked to the Chief of police about the Red Ridge Farm holding Weddings without a One Day License. Mr. Gilbert has recently received a request for a One Day License at Red Ridge Farm. The Board will need to discuss this more.

Inspector's Reports:

Mary Jo Griffin reported she visited The Deck and did not see any violations.

Old Business:

Mr. Gilbert stated that the ABCC has sent the change of Manager for Splash back because the CORI form was not notarized.

Mr. Gilbert received the change of Directors application for Shivruda, Inc DBA Fast Freddies Main St. from the ABCC stating the DOR certificate was expired. Mr. Gilbert talked to the attorney who stated he would get a new one for the Liquor Commission to submit to the ABCC.

Mr. Gilbert received the Transfer of License for Express Mart North End Blvd to Express Mart LLC to Mardy Tes from the ABCC stating the DOR certificate was missing. Mr. Gilbert noticed that it was actually in the packet and resubmitted it to the ABCC.

Antonio's Pub Annual All-Alcohol License is all set and he expects to open this weekend.
