MINUTES OF SPECIAL MEETING

DATE OF MEETING: March 20, 2023

CALL TO ORDER: 7:02

MEMBERS PRESENT: Dave Mitchell, Mike Tennis, Brent Beebe, Dave Chretien, Chris Chapman, Stephen Roth

HARBORMASTER PRESENT: Willem van de Stadt

MEMBERS ABSENT: Reggie Santos, Charles MacLean

GUESTS: NONE

APPROPRIATIONS:

- HM stated previous vendor, Viking Marine, pulled out of bid for bottom painting and new engines for Corbin. We received two new quotes for the sandblasting. North Shore Blasting in Marblehead bid was $6,000 and Winninghoff Boat Builders in Rowley bid was $7748. Bob Sign in Salisbury offered a price less than $1,000 to letter the Corbin. HM indicated that Winninghoff Boat Builders work on aluminum boats, their work is done inside, and they are closer. Both bids said they would give us priority because we are a municipality. Motion to approve the Winninghoff Boat Builders bid unanimously approved. Motion to appropriate an amount not to exceed $9,000 for the Winninghoff Boat Builders bid and Bob Sign bid unanimously approved.
- HM indicated we received a quote from River Front Marina in Salisbury for two new mercury motors. HM indicated that he would have another quote from Portside Marine in Danvers by the end of the week. Both vendors indicate that engines are at least 52 weeks out for delivery. River Front said they would service engines in the water here in Salisbury. Mr. Tennis said he will have another quote from Seacoast Marine in Hampton, NH.

HARBORMASTE REPORT: HM spoke about training sessions from the Environmental Police on ticket writing and Steve Roth on Court Process. HM hired three new assistant HM.
