

SALISBURY HISTORICAL COMMISSION

16 Elm Street, Salisbury, MA 01952

Tuesday, June 20, 2017 6:30 pm

Old Business:

- Loss of Secretary
- Need 2 new members
- Elect a new Chairman and new Secretary
- Check Website and review "Our Mission Statement"

New Business:

- Review recent event: Henry Woodard's book review at the Salisbury Public Library in early May on his life on Rings Island was a great success. This event can be viewed on local cable television.
- Wayne David is investigating getting another author here who has written a book about slaves in the area.
- Paul Sanders from Washington State is coming in July to further explore Paul Revere's ride through Salisbury on his way to Portsmouth, NH to warn the locals at Fort William & Mary. A van trip will be planned in the future reconstructing the route taken by Revere.
- Tom Tatro and Walter Sidley are viewing and photographing old barns in Salisbury, as a means of documenting which barns are still standing.

Part of the agenda will include a discussion of ways to access funds to underwrite projects.

Adjournment